

AVOLON ORDERS 250 AIRBUS AND BOEING AIRCRAFT

Dublin | 9 October 2026: Avolon, a leading global aviation finance company, today announced firm orders for 250 new-technology aircraft from Boeing and Airbus and issued an update for the third quarter ('Q3') 2026.

Orders for 250 New-Technology Aircraft

- Entered into a firm order with Boeing for 140 737 MAX aircraft
- Entered into a firm order with Airbus for 110 aircraft, comprising 75 A320neo family aircraft and 35 A330neo family aircraft, with options for a further 100 aircraft
- The new orders support the long-term fleet requirements of Avolon's airline customers
- Following the orders, Avolon's total firm aircraft commitments have increased to 749 aircraft
- The firm orders remain subject only to the approval by the shareholders of Bohai Leasing Co., Ltd., Avolon's 70% shareholder, which is expected before the end of October 2026

Q3 Business Activity

- Acquired 10 aircraft and sold 29 aircraft during the quarter, with a further 112 aircraft agreed for sale at quarter-end
- Placed 28 new-technology aircraft from our commitments, ending the quarter with 89% of our committed fleet placed for the next 24 months
- Executed 84 lease agreements, extensions and amendments during the period
- Ended the quarter with an owned, managed and committed fleet of 1,092 aircraft, or 1,342 aircraft pro forma for the new orders
- Established a US$1.5 billion commercial paper programme
- Closed a US$855 million unsecured term loan with a syndicate of primarily Asian banks

Andy Cronin, Avolon CEO, commented: "We continue to see strong demand for new-technology aircraft, reflected in our placement and trading activity this quarter. Against that backdrop, we are pleased to have reached agreements with Airbus and Boeing that strengthen and extend our long-term delivery pipeline. These orders further enhance our ability to support the future fleet requirements of our airline customers as they renew and expand their fleets into the most fuel-efficient technology available."
